Message from WatchSA

Kill Crime Now!

Do you have unwanted trouble?

The Hutt Street Precinct Association has a representative on the Adelaide Business Watch Committee, which call attention of SAPOL to criminal activity in the Adelaide areas. The committee meets on a monthly basis so your input is URGENT.

Contact our Residential/Business Watch representative Peter Prinse on 8295 8542 or e-Mail: alanda8@bigpond.com with your concerns of anti-social behaviour, petty crimes or burglary.

It is important to keep crime down within the Precinct so that people may go about their business without harassment.

Your input will be thankfully received!

'Our Hutt is in the Right Place' for Sala

It's almost here, bigger and better than ever before with around 40 artists showcasing their work in as many business premises along Hutt and Halifax Street.

Now in its 13th year the South Australian Living Artist Festival showcases our creative, passionate and proudly South Australian visual artists all over the State and particularly here in our Precinct. We invite you to immerse yourself in our local programme of events and enjoy the village atmosphere that is unique to Hutt Street.

Saturday 24th July 2pm.

Our program kicks off with the Exhibition Launch of Vanishing Landscapes by Tim Strachan at the Seven Stars Hotel. Carroll and Monica will provide a musical performance as we get into the Sala festive spirit.

Friday 30th July 7pm.

Not to be missed! TV personality Jane Reilly will officially open "Our Hutt's in the Right Place" at the Hutt Street Centre, number 258 with a musical performance by newly formed Smashed Crabs. Hutt Street Restaurants and food outlets are providing the nibbles so come with friends and enjoy the 'arty' evening.
