It is a very exciting time at HSPA with a number of new faces on the board. Thanks must go to Tony Williamson, who has been managing the precinct over many years. We will not be losing his expertise though as Tony will be around to assist the new board into the future as an ex-officio member.

The new board and roles are as follows:

 Secretary – Richard Libralato
 Treasurer – Peter Buik
 Public Officer – Alan Forrest
 Coordinator – Piper Bell

Other members:

For further information on the board, go to the HSPA website.

The focus for the board in the coming months will be to increase membership in the HSPA, link more with local residents and work to increase community capacity in the area by ensuring the inclusion and participation of all.

I welcome your ideas and feedback and look forward to working with you over the coming months.

SALA

The South Australian Living Artists festival was officially launched on Sunday afternoon, 9th of August by Honourable Dr. Jane Lomax-Smith MP. Approximately 100 visitors attended the Box Factory Community Centre for the launch of "INNER VISIONS", one of four exhibitions showcasing local artist's works throughout the precinct during the 2009 SALA Festival.

Guests were treated with music, poetry and even a magic show at the launch. Carroll Karpany and Monica Swan performed a haunting musical acknowledgement of the Kaurna nation to commence the event. Local artist, Peter Holton, performed a sound vibration healing to present his work. 17 year old Shaun was a winner with all ages with a magic show. Finally, Kay Argent read a poem celebrating SALA, an annual tradition of the festival:

Hark! There is music in the air

*And "INNER VISIONS" you can share
Admire paintings large and small*

Hung aesthetically on the wall

Youth art "FOOTPRINTS" are on view

*And there's a magic trick or two
We will never skip a "HUTT BEAT"*

*If all will rally in the street
The BOX FACTORY'S now the best
Enjoy with us this SALA FEST*

Peter Holton

Carroll Karpany

This year the festival had many successes and new editions. The SALA Walking Art tours along Hutt Street on 11th and 16th August were enjoyed by 35 art enthusiasts. Indigenous artist, Audrey Brumby showcased her works in an exhibition at the Seven Stars hotel titled, "Tales from Ernabella". The festival broadened this year with artworks displayed in Halifax Street businesses for the first time.

The Hutt Street Precinct Association would like to thank and congratulate Janice Argent for coordinating another thriving art festival for our community. Janice works throughout the year to bring art from local artists to our streets and ensures SALA runs without a hitch. Thank you Janice!

Janice Argent

Dining Excellence

The Annual Awards for Excellence for Restaurant & Catering SA was held last month at the Adelaide Convention Centre where more than 1000 guests gathered to celebrate South Australian restaurants, caterers and hospitality professionals.

Hutt Street's own Chianti Classico won the Popular Choice award. Congratulations to Frank Favro and Chianti Classico restaurant for continuing to be one of South Australia's most consistently awarded Italian restaurants for almost 25 years.

U3A

We at University of the Third Age, Adelaide welcome Adele Liddle, the newly appointed coordinator of the SE Community Centre. We have already shown her round the Box Factory and told her about the equipment that we will be sharing with the community. This includes DVD and CD players, a video recorder, microphones, and various bits and pieces that we brought from our previous home in Pulteney Street. In return we hope to use things like the laminating machine that ACC have provided for the community. A future of cooperation beckons.
